

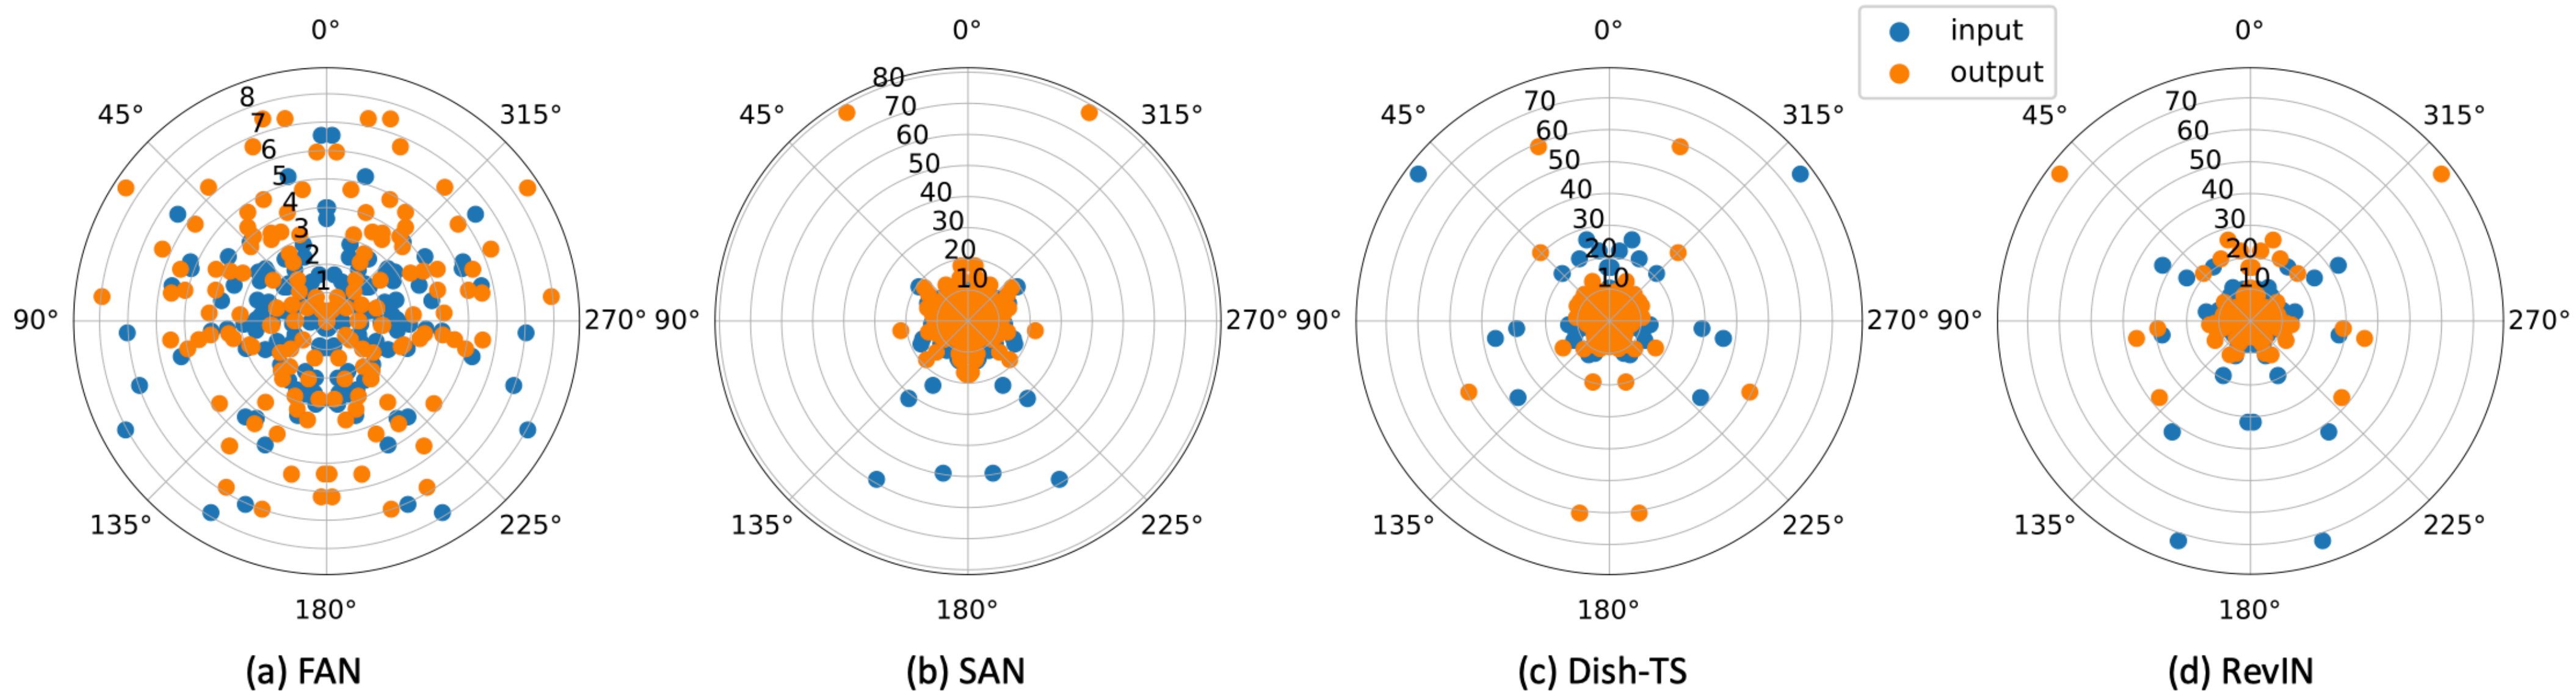

Figure 10: Fourier spectrum on polar axis of ETTm2 dataset with $L = 96$ after various normalization methods. Each point indicates one frequency component averaged across the dataset. The blue dots indicate the input Fourier components, the orange dots represent the output Fourier components. FAN remove top 5 Fourier components, and SAN slice in 12.